DENNIS J. BRODERICK is Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary of Macy's, Inc. (formerly known as Federated Department Stores, Inc.), a position to which he was elected in May 2009.

Broderick joined the company in 1987 when he was appointed Vice President and Deputy General Counsel. He was named Senior Vice President and General Counsel in 1990 and Secretary in 1993.

Before joining Macy's, Broderick was Assistant General Counsel at The Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. in Akron. Prior to that, he practiced with the law firm of Hahn, Loeser, Freedhaim, Dean & Wellman (now Hahn, Loeser & Parks) in Cleveland, Ohio.

Broderick is a member of CBA-BLAC Roundtable and a member of the Cincinnati Symphony Diversity Committee. He is a director on the board of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD), and a former member of the Cincinnati Symphony Board of Trustees.

Broderick, a native of Pittsburgh, is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. He earned a law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center in 1976.

Broderick resides in the Cincinnati area.

THOMAS T. TERP is Chairman of the Executive Committee and Managing Partner of Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP. He is a graduate of the William and Mary Law School, where he was Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review. Terp has been with the firm since 1973 and has concentrated on commercial litigation and environmental matters for the past 35 years. He has represented clients throughout the United States, frequently in precedent-setting litigation. Terp also has advised clients on environmental issues in connection with real estate transfers, loan transactions, and mergers and acquisitions.

He served on the Board of Editors of Environmental Hazards (Prentice-Hall) and the Environmental Law Journal of Ohio (Banks-Baldwin). Terp is included in The Best Lawyers in America, the Euromoney Publications (London) listing of The World's Leading Environmental Lawyers, the Cincinnati Magazine listing of Ohio Super Lawyers, the Chambers USA listing of America's Leading Lawyers for Business and the International Who's Who of Business Lawyers, also published in London.
