

SENIOR COUNSEL – TREASURY MANAGEMENT

Over 150 years, PNC has grown into one of America's most respected banks, because we're committed to helping customers and employees reach their goals. You can depend on PNC to provide the training you need, along with an inclusive culture that recognizes your talent, values diversity and cares about social responsibility. Working with us means having an opportunity you can feel good about, with a Fortune 200 company that's been selected as a "Great Place To Work" by Gallup.

The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (NYSE: PNC) is one of the nation's largest diversified financial services organizations with assets of over $320 billion. PNC, operating primarily in 19 states and the District of Columbia, provides retail and business banking; residential mortgage banking; specialized services for corporations and government entities, including corporate banking, real estate finance and asset-based lending; wealth management and asset management.

The Legal team of the Business & Finance Group has 60 team members, located principally in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, PA. We are seeking an experienced lawyer to join the legal team that supports the treasury management business at PNC. This position will be responsible for providing general legal support to the business, and may include a primary focus on assigned geographies as well as particular products.

This attorney will be expected to handle a large volume of matters arising out of the treasury management business. This will involve providing legal advice to treasury management senior managers, sales officers, product managers and members of Operations on a variety of matters of varying complexity to assist them in resolving and/or managing legal issues and in achieving their business goals. Primary tasks include counseling the business on product development and other new business initiatives, drafting, reviewing and negotiating customer and vendor agreements, handling customer disputes, reviewing marketing materials, conducting training for the business on selected topics, and monitoring and advising the business on legislative and regulatory changes applicable to the treasury management business, and changes to NACHA and other payment system rules. In all of these activities, the job requires the ability to identify risks to the company and practical ways to effectively address those risks. This position will also entail involvement in special projects and assignments as needed.

This position requires the following areas of experience/expertise:

- General knowledge of banking law, as well as knowledge of Articles 3, 4 and 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code.

- Familiarity and experience with legal issues arising out of payment systems and cash management services such as wire transfer, ACH, lockbox operations and receivables processing, use of check images, etc. are required.
- Strong contract drafting, negotiating, and issue-spotting skills are necessary. Knowledge of government contracting issues is a plus.
- Meaningful experience with payment systems and cash management services outside the U.S. is an important consideration for this position.

The ideal candidate will possess the following qualifications and credentials:

- J.D. degree from an accredited law school.
- Currently licensed to practice in the courts of one or more states
- A minimum of 10 years of experience representing financial institutions in the treasury management area. Must have demonstrated ability to fulfill designated responsibilities.
- Demonstrated strong judgment, legal analysis and oral and written communication skills. Ability to effectively interact with line of business managers and other attorneys in receiving and transmitting information.
- Uses knowledge of legislation, regulations and case law affecting practice area in order to provide practical legal advice, develop policies and practices and ensure regulatory and legal compliance.
- Has the ability to provide the appropriate level of guidance and oversight to less experienced attorneys, paralegals and administrative staff.
- Has ability to represent PNC effectively in interaction with external counsel for PNC and with counsel for representing other parties.

Performs work with minimal supervision and in performing work exercises independent judgment and discretion.

You'll enjoy award-winning training programs and extensive full- and part-time benefits, such as a 401(k) and pension plan, medical and dental coverage, and discounts on loans and financial services. We also understand the importance of a work/life balance and help employees support their families with wellness programs, back-up child care and more.

Visit www.pnc.jobs and search for keyword 205571.

PNC provides equal employment opportunity to qualified persons regardless of race, color, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, veteran status, or other category protected by law.