

Litigation Associate (New York, NY)

The New York office of Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC has an immediate opening for a Litigation Associate with 2-4 years of complex commercial litigation experience. We seek a proactive associate that takes initiative and wants broad experience and someone who is interested in going to court, taking depositions, working directly with partners and meeting with clients. The position will not be limited to commercial litigation and may also include some criminal/white collar defense, as well as family and matrimonial work. Excellent academic credentials and top tier law firm experience required. Federal Judicial or State Appellate Clerkship experience preferred. Must be admitted in New York. Qualified candidates should apply online at https://lawcruit.micronapps.com/sup/v2/lc_supp_app_frm.aspx?lawfirm=113&id=0. All applications must be accompanied by a resume, cover letter, transcript and writing sample. All questions should be directed to Donna J. Nolan, Manager of Attorney Recruiting, at donna.nolan@bipc.com. EOE.