VP, Corporate Counsel - US 0000R
Legal
Newark, NJ

Prudential seeks an attorney to fill a vacancy in the US Businesses Regulatory Law Section of the Law Department ("USBRL"). USBRL functions somewhat like a law firm for Prudentials US Businesses and their lawyers and compliance officers, addressing a variety of legal and regulatory issues affecting multiple businesses (Individual Insurance, Group Insurance, Asset Management, Retirement and Annuities). Laws we advise on include the Dodd-Frank Act; federal and state securities, broker-dealer and investment management laws; federal commodities and derivatives laws; insurance laws; and political law matters campaign finance, pay-to-play, lobbying, government ethics, and political action committee matters. We also participate in industry trade associations; monitor, analyze and participate in commenting on regulatory initiatives of agencies such as the SEC, MSRB, FINRA, CFTC, NFA and DOL; and provide impact analysis and coordinate working groups to address new regulatory developments. In addition USBRL provides support to Corporate Compliance on a range of matters, such as US and foreign regulatory filings. Our attorneys also act as counsel to Prudential Investment Management Services LLC, the SEC-registered and FINRA-member broker-dealer through which the Prudential Retirement and Asset Management businesses conduct broker-dealer activities. Collaboration with colleagues in the Law Department, External Affairs and the Compliance Department is a hallmark of our practice. This position involves primary responsibility for supporting Prudential Investments (Prudentials mutual fund arm) with respect to agreements for the distribution of its family of mutual funds, including preparation of dealer agreements with broker-dealers and service agreements for the sale of funds through third-party retirement distribution channels. This position also offers an opportunity to obtain broad experience working with three senior attorneys.
