

Volunteer Opportunity:

The Association of Clinical Research Professionals (ACRP) is looking for legal panelists for a one-hour webinar on “Legal Careers in Clinical Research.”

This is a volunteer opportunity to share your personal experience on possible legal career paths with individuals currently in clinical research roles. The webinar will include 2 legal professionals and a moderator to provide insight into the day to day activities of an attorney with experience in Pharmaceutical/Device/Biotech/CRO roles. Topics can include:

- the qualifications/requirements for your job
- different titles available for roles similar to yours
- what your function entails
- what you are passionate about in your role
- your path to your current role
- tips to obtain a similar position

No need for travel; webinar set up entirely handled by ACRP.
