

2017 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text or email pictures of your experiences at these NOLA landmarks to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Specialist, at (540) 419-5639 or cpuffenberger@lclldnet.com. She will collect them all and distribute them after the meeting.
@LCLD_rgrey #FellowsinNOLA

G1. Enjoy a Beignet	U1. Hurricane	M1. Carousel Bar	B1. French Market	O1. Lacey Wrought Iron or Cast Iron Balcony
G2. Joan of Arc Statue	U2. Voodoo Doll or Gris Gris Bag	M2. Masks	B2. Napoleon House Historic Marker	O2. Mule-Drawn Carriage
G3. St. Louis Cathedral	U3. Old Absinthe House	M3. Grandfather Clock in Hotel Monteleone Lobby	B3. Faulkner House Books	O3. Musical Legends Park
G4. Laffite's Blacksmith Shop	U4. Street Performers	M4. Andrew Jackson Statue	B4. Supreme Court Building	O4. Court of Two Sisters
G5. Eat a Raw Oyster	U5. Cat in the Hat	M5. Poor-Boy Sandwich	B5. Mississippi River Boat	O5. Antoine's Restaurant Sign

Clues:

- G1. These yummy square French doughnuts are found all over, but they are best at Café du Monde.
- G2. Locals call her “Joanie on the Pony.”
- G3. The best view is from across the street on top of the steps by the cannon.
- G4. May be the oldest bar in the U.S.—served as a front for the pirate’s smuggling business.
- G5. Try ACME Oyster House if the line isn’t too long.
- U1. This popular cocktail is best where it was invented—Pat O’Brien’s.
- U2. New Orleans is a truly magical place.
- U3. This 200-year-old bar is close to the hotel—leave your business card on the wall and take a photo.
- U4. Be sure to tip them for a photo.
- U5. Visit The Art of Dr. Seuss, a new art gallery on Bienville St. devoted to Dr. Seuss.
- M1. Hotel Monteleone is home to this famous bar—yes, it really does move!
- M2. Locals love to wear costumes.
- M3. Locals often use this landmark as a meeting place.
- M4. Hence the name of Jackson Square.
- M5. Any kind will do, they are all great! Some call them “Po-Boys.”
- B1. A bit of a walk, but a great place to get souvenirs.
- B2. If they are open, try a Pimm’s Cup—delicious!
- B3. Find it in Pirate’s Alley. NOLA has great literary history—as does your hotel.
- B4. The only Beaux Arts structure in the French Quarter.
- B5. Barge, cruise ship, paddle wheeler . . .any type of boat will do.
- O1. Just look up anywhere in the French Quarter.
- O2. No, they are not horses.
- O3. Located on Bourbon St. and features statues of famous New Orleans musicians and live jazz music daily.
- O4. Famous for its Jazz Brunch and its beautiful “courty”yard.
- O5. The oldest continuously operating restaurant in the U.S.—she turns 175 this year.

2017 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text or email pictures of your experiences at these NOLA landmarks to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Specialist, at (540) 419-5639 or cpuffenberger@lclldnet.com. She will collect them all and distribute them after the meeting.
@LCLD_rgrey #FellowsinNOLA

G1. Cat in the Hat	U1. Enjoy a Beignet	M1. Eat a Raw Oyster	B1. Street Performers	O1. Poor-Boy Sandwich
G2. Bowl of Gumbo	U2. Pharmacy Museum	M2. Old Absinthe House	B2. Carousel Bar	O2. Napoleon House Historic Marker
G3. Streetcar	U3. St. Louis Cathedral	M3. Grandfather Clock in Hotel Monteleone Lobby	B3. Masks	O3. Faulkner House Books
G4. Antique Shop	U4. Joan of Arc Statue	M4. Voodoo Doll or Gris Gris Bag	B4. Above Ground Grave or Tomb	O4. Supreme Court Building
G5. Hand Grenade	U5. Hurricane	M5. Praline	B5. Andrew Jackson Statue	O5. Mississippi River Boat

Clues:

- G1. Visit The Art of Dr. Seuss, a new art gallery on Bienville St. devoted to Dr. Seuss.
- G2. Each is different—all are good!
- G3. Red or green, either will do, just don't call them "trolleys." One was even named "Desire."
- G4. Some of the best in the U.S.
- G5. Since the "cocktail" was invented in NOLA, there are lots of "originals"—this one is potent, so be careful!
- U1. These yummy square French doughnuts are found all over, but they are best at Café du Monde.
- U2. Yes, the first licensed pharmacy in the U.S. was in New Orleans, and the first "cocktail" was concocted there.
- U3. The best view is from across the street on top of the steps by the cannon.
- U4. Locals call her "Joanie on the Pony."
- U5. This popular cocktail is best where it was invented—Pat O'Brien's.
- M1. Try ACME Oyster House if the line isn't too long.
- M2. This 200-year-old bar is close to the hotel—leave your business card on the wall and take a photo.
- M3. Locals often use this landmark as a meeting place.
- M4. New Orleans is a truly magical place.
- M5. This sweet treat can be found almost anywhere, but beware if you have a nut allergy!
- B1. Be sure to tip them for a photo.
- B2. Hotel Monteleone is home to this famous bar—yes, it really does move!
- B3. Locals love to wear costumes.
- B4. St. Louis Cemetery is a bit of a walk, and only open M-S 9 am - 3 pm and Sun. 9 am - noon.
- B5. Hence the name of Jackson Square.
- O1. Any kind will do, they are all great! Some call them "Po-Boys."
- O2. If they are open, try a Pimm's Cup—delicious!
- O3. Find it in Pirate's Alley. NOLA has great literary history—as does your hotel.
- O4. The only Beaux Arts structure in the French Quarter.
- O5. Barge, cruise ship, paddle wheeler . . . any type of boat will do.

2017 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text or email pictures of your experiences at these NOLA landmarks to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Specialist, at (540) 419-5639 or cpuffenberger@lclldnet.com. She will collect them all and distribute them after the meeting.
@LCLD_rgrey #FellowsinNOLA

G1. Lacey Wrought Iron or Cast Iron Balcony	U1. Bowl of Gumbo	M1. Pharmacy Museum	B1. Eat a Raw Oyster	O1. Cat in the Hat
G2. Mule-Drawn Carriage	U2. Laffite's Blacksmith Shop	M2. Enjoy a Beignet	B2. Hurricane	O2. Masks
G3. Musical Legends Park	U3. Art Gallery	M3. Grandfather Clock in Hotel Monteleone Lobby	B3. Voodoo Doll or Gris Gris Bag	O3. Carousel Bar
G4. Court of Two Sisters	U4. Hand Grenade	M4. Joan of Arc Statue	B4. Old Absinthe House	O4. Streetcar
G5. Antoine's Restaurant Sign	U5. Antique Shop	M5. St. Louis Cathedral	B5. Street Performers	O5. Poor-Boy Sandwich

Clues:

- G1. Just look up anywhere in the French Quarter.
- G2. No, they are not horses.
- G3. Located on Bourbon St. and features statues of famous New Orleans musicians and live jazz music daily.
- G4. Famous for its Jazz Brunch and its beautiful “courty”yard.
- G5. The oldest continuously operating restaurant in the U.S.—she turns 175 this year.
- U1. Each is different—all are good!
- U2. May be the oldest bar in the U.S.—served as a front for the pirate’s smuggling business.
- U3. So many from which to choose.
- U4. Since the “cocktail” was invented in NOLA, there are lots of “originals”—this one is potent, so be careful!
- U5. Some of the best in the U.S.
- M1. Yes, the first licensed pharmacy in the U.S. was in New Orleans, and the first “cocktail” was concocted there.
- M2. These yummy square French doughnuts are found all over, but they are best at Café du Monde.
- M3. Locals often use this landmark as a meeting place.
- M4. Locals call her “Joanie on the Pony.”
- M5. The best view is from across the street on top of the steps by the cannon.
- B1. Try ACME Oyster House if the line isn’t too long.
- B2. This popular cocktail is best where it was invented—Pat O’Brien’s.
- B3. New Orleans is a truly magical place.
- B4. This 200-year-old bar is close to the hotel—leave your business card on the wall and take a photo.
- B5. Be sure to tip them for a photo.
- O1. Visit The Art of Dr. Seuss, a new art gallery on Bienville St. devoted to Dr. Seuss.
- O2. Locals love to wear costumes.
- O3. Hotel Monteleone is home to this famous bar—yes, it really does move!
- O4. Red or green, either will do, just don’t call them “trolleys.” One was even named “Desire.”
- O5. Any kind will do, they are all great! Some call them “Po-Boys.”

2017 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text or email pictures of your experiences at these NOLA landmarks to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Specialist, at (540) 419-5639 or cpuffenberger@lclldnet.com. She will collect them all and distribute them after the meeting.
@LCLD_rgrey #FellowsinNOLA

G1. Andrew Jackson Statue	U1. Voodoo Doll or Gris Gris Bag	M1. Masks	B1. Faulkner House Books	O1. St. Louis Cathedral
G2. Joan of Arc Statue	U2. Lacey Wrought Iron or Cast Iron Balcony	M2. Antoine's Restaurant Sign	B2. Antique Shop	O2. Above Ground Grave or Tomb
G3. Napoleon House Historic Marker	U3. Street Performers	M3. Grandfather Clock in Hotel Monteleone Lobby	B3. Mississippi River Boat	O3. Court of Two Sisters
G4. Eat a Raw Oyster	U4. French Market	M4. Poor-Boy Sandwich	B4. Enjoy a Beignet	O4. Hurricane
G5. Supreme Court Building	U5. Musical Legends Park	M5. Cat in the Hat	B5. Mule-Drawn Carriage	O5. Bowl of Gumbo

Clues:

- G1. Hence the name of Jackson Square.
- G2. Locals call her “Joanie on the Pony.”
- G3. If they are open, try a Pimm’s Cup—delicious!
- G4. Try ACME Oyster House if the line isn’t too long.
- G5. The only Beaux Arts structure in the French Quarter.
- U1. New Orleans is a truly magical place.
- U2. Just look up anywhere in the French Quarter.
- U3. Be sure to tip them for a photo.
- U4. A bit of a walk, but a great place to get souvenirs.
- U5. Located on Bourbon St. and features statues of famous New Orleans musicians and live jazz music daily.
- M1. Locals love to wear costumes.
- M2. The oldest continuously operating restaurant in the U.S.—she turns 175 this year.
- M3. Locals often use this landmark as a meeting place.
- M4. Any kind will do, they are all great! Some call them “Po-Boys.”
- M5. Visit The Art of Dr. Seuss, a new art gallery on Bienville St. devoted to Dr. Seuss.
- B1. Find it in Pirate’s Alley. NOLA has great literary history—as does your hotel.
- B2. Some of the best in the U.S.
- B3. Barge, cruise ship, paddle wheeler . . .any type of boat will do.
- B4. These yummy square French doughnuts are found all over, but they are best at Café du Monde.
- B5. No, they are not horses.
- O1. The best view is from across the street on top of the steps by the cannon.
- O2. St. Louis Cemetery is a bit of a walk, and only open M-S 9 am - 3 pm and Sun. 9 am - noon.
- O3. Famous for its Jazz Brunch and its beautiful “courty”yard.
- O4. This popular cocktail is best where it was invented—Pat O’Brien’s.
- O5. Each is different—all are good!

2017 LCLD Fellows Third Meeting

Please see the back of the card for clues.

Text or email pictures of your experiences at these NOLA landmarks to Caitlin Puffenberger, LCLD Communications Specialist, at (540) 419-5639 or cpuffenberger@lclldnet.com. She will collect them all and distribute them after the meeting.
@LCLD_rgrey #FellowsinNOLA

G1. Old Absinthe House	U1. Mule-Drawn Carriage	M1. Bowl of Gumbo	B1. Pharmacy Museum	O1. Art Gallery
G2. Faulkner House Books	U2. French Market	M2. Supreme Court Building	B2. Musical Legends Park	O2. Voodoo Doll or Gris Gris Bag
G3. Cat in the Hat	U3. Andrew Jackson Statue	M3. Grandfather Clock in Hotel Monteleone Lobby	B3. Joan of Arc Statue	O3. Antique Shop
G4. Mississippi River Boat	U4. Court of Two Sisters	M4. Hand Grenade	B4. Antoine's Restaurant Sign	O4. Street Performers
G5. Carousel Bar	U5. Napoleon House Historic Marker	M5. Lacey Wrought Iron or Cast Iron Balcony	B5. Eat a Raw Oyster	O5. Streetcar

Clues:

- G1. This 200-year-old bar is close to the hotel—leave your business card on the wall and take a photo.
- G2. Find it in Pirate’s Alley. NOLA has great literary history—as does your hotel.
- G3. Visit The Art of Dr. Seuss, a new art gallery on Bienville St. devoted to Dr. Seuss.
- G4. Barge, cruise ship, paddle wheeler . . . any type of boat will do.
- G5. Hotel Monteleone is home to this famous bar—yes, it really does move!
- U1. No, they are not horses.
- U2. A bit of a walk, but a great place to get souvenirs.
- U3. Hence the name of Jackson Square.
- U4. Famous for its Jazz Brunch and its beautiful “courty” yard.
- U5. If they are open, try a Pimm’s Cup—delicious!
- M1. Each is different—all are good!
- M2. The only Beaux Arts structure in the French Quarter.
- M3. Locals often use this landmark as a meeting place.
- M4. Since the “cocktail” was invented in NOLA, there are lots of “originals”—this one is potent, so be careful!
- M5. Just look up anywhere in the French Quarter.
- B1. Yes, the first licensed pharmacy in the U.S. was in New Orleans, and the first “cocktail” was concocted there.
- B2. Located on Bourbon St. and features statues of famous New Orleans musicians and live jazz music daily.
- B3. Locals call her “Joanie on the Pony.”
- B4. The oldest continuously operating restaurant in the U.S.—she turns 175 this year.
- B5. Try ACME Oyster House if the line isn’t too long.
- O1. So many from which to choose.
- O2. New Orleans is a truly magical place.
- O3. Some of the best in the U.S.
- O4. Be sure to tip them for a photo.
- O5. Red or green, either will do, just don’t call them “trolleys.” One was even named “Desire.”