

Walter Lohmann

Of-Counsel, Kirkland & Ellis LLP; Special Projects Coordinator, LCLD

Walt Lohmann is a retired partner and currently Of-Counsel at Kirkland & Ellis LLP. Lohmann served as co-chair of Kirkland’s Firmwide Diversity Committee from 2006-2014. He first became acquainted with LCLD in that position and went on to serve as a city lead for LCLD’s “Success in Law School Mentoring Program” for several years. He is currently a volunteer Special Projects Coordinator for LCLD, working primarily with the Pathfinder Program. Lohmann serves on the boards of the Posse Foundation (DC) and Gifts for the Homeless, Inc., and is the proud founder of “Banding Together, the Battle of the Law Firm Bands (a Gifts for the Homeless benefit).”
