

Neonu Jewell

Founder and CEO, Christmas Jewell Corp. and Niyah Center

Neonu Jewell is committed to creating transformative results in the world. She lives by the mantra, “When one succeeds, we all succeed.” She has over 20 years of facilitation, training, legal, and corporate experience. Her focus is transformational leadership, personal empowerment, and promoting inclusive cultures where people can live and work together effectively across differences. Jewell develops and facilitates webinars, workshops, and corporate training. She also provides strategic leadership support and executive coaching. In addition to working with the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity’s Pathfinder Program, she is a member of the teaching faculty for Momentum Education’s Leadership Program.

As a former practicing attorney, Jewell launched her legal career as a corporate and international regulatory compliance attorney at Thompson Hine LLP in Washington, D.C. She later served as International Trade Counsel in Fortune 100 companies (e.g., Accenture, Lockheed Martin, and Raytheon) and was recruited by the CEO to become the President and General Counsel of a technology company. Jewell’s career highlights include facilitating seminars for thousands of people, helping hundreds of individual clients achieve extraordinary personal results, and designing and deploying compliance training to over 10,000 global employees.

Jewell holds a J.D. from Georgetown University Law School as well as both an M.B.A. and a B.S. in Business Administration from Florida A&M University (FAMU). She will earn her Master’s degree in Divinity from Union Theological Seminary, Columbia University, in the spring of 2021.

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL
ON LEGAL DIVERSITY