

Timothy Murphy

General Counsel, Mastercard

Tim Murphy is General Counsel for Mastercard. In this capacity, he oversees legal affairs, public policy, corporate governance, and compliance. He is also responsible for Mastercard's franchise, corporate security, privacy, and global inclusion teams. Murphy is a member of the company's Management Committee.

Prior to assuming this role, Murphy was chief product officer, where he was responsible for the development and management of payment solutions creating sustainable advantage for Mastercard and its customers.

Throughout his tenure, Murphy has also served as president of the company's US region, executive vice president of customer business planning and analysis, and senior vice president and associate general counsel for Mastercard.

Before joining Mastercard in 2000, he was an associate in the New York and London offices of Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton.

Murphy is a member of the board of trustees for the National Urban League, the board of directors for the US-Russia Business Council, and the board of directors for the Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship. Murphy also serves as chairman of the board of governors for Fairfield College Preparatory School. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and a member of the 2018 Policyowners' Examining Committee, Northwestern Mutual.

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL
ON LEGAL DIVERSITY