

Shamina Singh

President, Center for Inclusive Growth

Executive Vice President, Sustainability, Mastercard

Shamina Singh is the President of the Center for Inclusive Growth and the Executive Vice President of Sustainability at Mastercard. In these roles, she is responsible for advancing equitable economic growth and financial inclusion around the world. In 2015, Singh was appointed by the President and confirmed by the US Senate to a six-year term on the Board of the Corporation for National and Community Service.

Singh is a graduate of the Presidential Leadership Fellows program, an alumna of the Young Global Leaders program of the World Economic Forum, a Henry Crown Fellow with the Aspen Institute, and currently sits on the boards of the Beeck Center for Social Impact and Innovation at Georgetown University, Data & Society, and the Global Health Corps.

Prior to joining Mastercard, Singh led Government and Public Affairs for Nike and spent five years with Citi's Global Community Development Group. Over a 15-year career in the public sector, Singh has held senior positions in the White House and the US House of Representatives.
