

Ellen E. Boshkoff

Partner, Faegre Baker Daniels LLP

Ellen Boshkoff is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and is one of Indiana's top employment trial lawyers. For the past 25 years, she has defended employers (both public and private) in both federal and state courts. Her experience includes defending class and collective actions and handling systemic investigations brought by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

Boshkoff has represented nationwide and Fortune 100 employers on issues such as sexual harassment discrimination and retaliation, meal break litigation, donning and doffing, and employee classification. She has won jury trials throughout the country, including six consecutive employment litigation trials in as many years and five states for one global client.

Boshkoff's depth of experience, focus, and tenacity allow her to bring practical strategies to clients. She regularly trains businesses, organizations, and fellow lawyers on employment law issues and litigation.

Boshkoff has been admitted to the Indiana and California bars, as well as the Indiana Supreme Court, various U.S. Courts of Appeals, and various U.S. District Courts throughout the country. She is also an Adjunct Professor of Pretrial Litigation at Indiana University Maurer School of Law.

Boshkoff earned her J.D. degree summa cum laude from Indiana University Maurer School of Law. She was also a member of the Order of the Coif, Order of the Barristers, articles editor of the Indiana Law Journal. She earned her B.A. with high honors from Swarthmore College.

LEADERSHIP
COUNCIL
ON LEGAL
DIVERSITY