

Naana Frimpong

Counsel, King & Spalding LLP; 2019 Fellow

Naana Frimpong serves as Counsel at King & Spalding LLP. Her practice focuses on white-collar criminal defense, internal corporate investigations and government enforcement actions, international arbitration, and international disputes generally, with a focus on the African continent. Frimpong is a term member of the Council on Foreign Relations, and a member of the American Society International Law (ASIL).

Frimpong received her Juris Doctor degree from Yale Law School and her undergraduate degree from Amherst College.