

Kevin Gooch

Partner, DLA Piper; 2015 Fellow

Kevin Gooch is a Partner at DLA Piper. He is a transactional attorney who balances the demands of servicing clients in the Fortune 500 with his passion for mentoring and ensuring that young people has access to quality educational opportunities. Gooch handles all types of general corporate matters, but has developed an expertise in negotiating and documenting large debt transactions on behalf of financial institutions or corporate borrowers depending on the transaction. Over the course of his career, Gooch has closed loan transactions and restructurings worth over $20 billion.

Gooch currently serves on the Board of Directors of the 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Inc. He was recently asked to serve as Co-Chair of the Emerging 100 Taskforce of the 100 Black men of America, Inc., which is tasked with rolling out Emerging 100 chapters across the country. Gooch is also a member of the Board of Counselors of Oxford College of Emory University. Gooch serves on the Board of Directors of the Council on Legal Education Opportunity (CLEO) in an effort to expand legal education opportunities to minority, low-income, and disadvantaged groups.

Gooch is a member of the American Bar Association, National Bar Association, Georgia Bar Association, and Atlanta Bar Association. He received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Georgia School of Law.