

Antony Kim

Partner, Orrick; 2013 Fellow

Tony Kim is Partner in Orrick’s internationally recognized Cyber, Privacy & Data Innovation practice. When faced with a cyber crisis, companies call on Kim to help navigate critical legal, risk, and reputational landmines. He has helped clients respond to hundreds of cyberattacks and data breaches and has directed forensic investigations, cross-border notifications, and regulatory and private enforcement matters, in connection with incidents involving personal data of employees and customers, as well as proprietary data and corporate trade secrets.

The National Law Journal named Kim to its 2014 list of D.C. Rising Stars, a 40-under-40 group of “game changing” private, government, and public interest attorneys. Kim received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Yale University and his Juris Doctor degree from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association, the District of Columbia Bar Association, and the American Bar Association.
