

Brian Pandya

Deputy Associate Attorney General, U.S. Department of Justice; 2016 Fellow

Brian Pandya is the Deputy Associate Attorney General of the U.S. Department of Justice. In this role, Pandya advises and assists the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General in formulating and implementing Department policies and oversees numerous DOJ components including the Antitrust Division, Civil Division, Civil Rights Division, Environment and Natural Resources Division, Tax Division, and Office of Justice Programs.

Pandya received his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School, where he served as articles editor of the Michigan Telecommunications and Technology Law Review, and his B.S. in mechanical engineering, with honors and high distinctions, from Penn State University.