

Sarah Wintle Alexander

Pathfinder Program Manager, Leadership Council on Legal Diversity

Sarah Wintle Alexander is the Program Manager for the LCLD Pathfinder Program. In this role, she is responsible for ensuring that talented junior attorneys at LCLD Member organizations receive the robust leadership training needed to help move them to the next level in their careers.

Alexander has a vast range of professional experience. Prior to returning to LCLD in 2018 (during 2012-2014, she helped create and manage the LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program), she was a key player in helping to build and operate a multimillion-dollar family business in the agriculture and renewable energy sector. Before that, she worked in education first as a high school teacher with Teach for America, then as a recruiter of teachers, and finally as an education policy researcher. Alexander lives in northern Maine with her husband, Jonah, and his two girls, Mariah and Sylvia.

LEADERSHIP COUNCIL
ON LEGAL DIVERSITY