

1L Job Posting

Starting November 15¹, 2022, Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP will be accepting applications for 1L students to participate in our 2023 summer associate program. This position is in the New York Office. In addition to participating in our summer program, our 1Ls will have the opportunity to participate in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L Scholars Program, which includes networking opportunities and attending a professional development summit. LCLD is an organization of more than 350 in-house legal departments and law firms who are dedicated to creating a more inclusive and diverse legal profession.

Summer associates are given work assignments similar to those given to our regular associates and can expect to experience a realistic view of the Firm and our practice. We look for candidates with records of strong academic achievement who reflect a wide range of backgrounds and share important qualities – creativity, excitement about the practice of law, a strong work ethic, and motivation and ability to excel.

Summer Associates (both first and second year law school students) in New York are paid a weekly salary of $4,135.

Individuals applying for a 1L summer associate position should submit an application to csmrecruit@cravath.com with the subject: 1L Application (Law School Name). Applications should include your resume, an unofficial copy of your undergraduate transcript and an indication of your practice area(s) of interest (e.g., Corporate, Litigation, Executive Compensation and Benefits, Tax or Trusts and Estates). We also request you submit an unofficial copy of your law school transcript as soon as your first semester grades are available.

¹ Please consult the guidelines for your specific law school's timing for submitting applications to firms.
