

Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) 1L LCLD Scholars Program

The 1L LCLD Scholars Program offers first-year law students from diverse/underrepresented backgrounds* the opportunity to spend a summer working with attorneys from LCLD Member organizations. 195 LCLD Member law firms and corporations participated in the 2022 program, collectively offering more than 860 opportunities. Opportunities for 2023 are currently being added by LCLD Members.

Program Benefits:

LCLD provides several networking opportunities for 1L LCLD Scholars, which include:

- 1L LCLD Scholars Virtual Summit, May 23-25, 2023.
- 1L LCLD Scholars will have an opportunity to participate in a virtual mock interview with attorneys from LCLD Member law firms and ABA attorneys.
- Dedicated LinkedIn group for 1L LCLD Scholars.
- Invitations to join the LCLD community events over the summer.

Eligibility and Application Process:

- 1L LCLD Scholar candidates must be enrolled as first-year law students and in good standing at an ABA-approved law school.
- Candidates must apply directly to their desired LCLD Member firms and corporations; each Member organization will independently identify, select, and hire its 1L LCLD Scholar(s).
- Visit www.lclldnet.org/1lscholars for more information, including the list of participating LCLD Member law firms and corporations, and each of their application dates.

Application Period Begins December 1, 2022

Questions? Contact Nancy Richardson, Program Manager, at nrichardson@lclldnet.org.

Diverse/underrepresented backgrounds in the legal profession.*