MARTIN H. NESBITT serves as Co-CEO of The Vistria Group, LLC, a Chicago-based investment company focused on the education, healthcare, and financial services industries. Prior to co-founding Vistria, Nesbitt served as CEO of The Parking Spot, an owner and operator of off-airport parking facilities. Nesbitt conceptualized and co-founded The Parking Spot and was responsible for running all strategic and operating aspects of the company. Nesbitt sold the company in 2011 for $370 million. Prior to launching The Parking Spot, Nesbitt was an officer of the Pritzker Realty Group, L.P.

Prior to joining Pritzker, Nesbitt was an investment manager at LaSalle Partners with a variety of responsibilities including investment management for regional retail properties and management and leasing for office projects and parking.

In his various leadership capacities, Nesbitt has been successful at guiding executive teams toward the achievement of goals established to maximize returns on his investments. Nesbitt's approach to the off-airport parking business was heralded by industry insiders as extremely innovative and has been recognized in national publications like The New York Times, USA Today, Entrepreneur, and Fortune Small Business Magazine.

Nesbitt currently serves on the Board of Directors of Jones Lang LaSalle, Norfolk Southern Corporation, and American Airlines Group. He is a Trustee of Chicago's Museum of Contemporary Art and serves as Chairman of the Barack Obama Foundation. He is former chairman of the Board of the Chicago Housing Authority and a former board member of the Chicago 2016 Olympic Committee.

Nesbitt served as treasurer of President Barack Obama’s 2008 and 2012 presidential campaigns.

Nesbitt has a Masters of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago and a Bachelor of Science degree and honorary doctorate from Albion College, Albion, Michigan.

MARK J. OHRINGER has been Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Corporate Secretary of Jones Lang LaSalle Incorporated since April 2003. He oversees the firm’s legal, compliance, ethics, and insurance programs on a global basis.
