

Project Pipeline LCLD 1L Scholars Mock Interviews

Dear Legal Community:

Microsoft will be hosting another round of virtual mock interviews to help diverse 1L law students improve their chances of landing a legal position, in furtherance of Microsoft's partnership with the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD).

Microsoft has partnered with LCLD on a project to improve the performance of diverse students in interviews. This program helps students create more compelling resumes, build their online professional profiles, and tell their stories in authentic ways that showcase their skills and experiences. LCLD mentors hundreds of law students each year, and your participation makes a huge difference.

We need attorneys who can commit to one or more virtual 1.5hr mock interview sessions (with an additional, optional 1-hour virtual Kick-Off session) where you will provide written and oral feedback to students. Participation in this opportunity can help you meet your MCCA scorecard objectives.
