Mitchell Zuklie: Collaborating for Change

June 13, 2019

By Mitchell Zuklie, LCLD Member and Chairman of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP

As the managing partners and general counsel of top law firms and corporate legal departments, LCLD Members are some of the most powerful legal leaders in the United States. But some of our Members go above and beyond in applying their leadership to advance diversity and inclusion at their organizations and in the broader legal profession. These individuals exemplify LCLD's mission to make the legal profession as diverse as the nation it serves.

LCLD asked Mitchell Zuklie, Chairman and CEO of Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, to share one of the most innovative, impactful ways his organization is advancing inclusion.
