

Linklaters MAKING Links

Making Links 2L Diversity Fellowship Program

Linklaters is pleased to introduce our Making Links 2L Diversity Fellowship program in our New York and Washington, D.C., offices. As a Making Links 2L Diversity Fellow at Linklaters, you will participate in our ten-week summer associate program. Throughout the program, you will receive valuable experience working alongside attorneys, training and mentoring from partners and associates, and meaningful client engagement.

Fellows are eligible to receive a stipend of US$25,000 (less applicable taxes and withholdings) after acceptance of a full-time offer to join the Firm as an associate in 2023.

Eligibility:

Linklaters' Making Links 2L Diversity Fellowship is open to second-year law students from underrepresented groups in the legal profession.

To be an eligible applicant, a student must:

- > be enrolled in an ABA-accredited law school with an expected graduation date of 2023;
- > have a long-term interest in practicing law in one of Linklaters' U.S. offices; and
- > not be the recipient of a similar diversity award from another law firm or other employer during the same time period.

Application process:

Applications will be accepted from June 1 through September 3, 2021. Click here to access our careers site.

Required application materials:

1. Resume
2. Unofficial undergraduate and law school transcripts
3. Legal writing sample of 10 pages or less
4. Personal statement of up to 500 words, addressing your:
 - > interest in working at a global firm;
 - > interest in Linklaters, including specific office preference; and
 - > notable achievements and/or noteworthy leadership or other contributions to your community.

Questions:

If you have any questions regarding the Making Links 2L Diversity Fellowship Program, please email usrecruit@linklaters.com.

Find out more at careers.linklaters.com

linkedin.com/showcase/linklatersamericas/

@LinklatersLLP