RE: A Call for Mock Interviewers

Dear Colleagues,

I'd like to invite you to participate as a mock interviewer during a career development workshop at this year's LCLD 1L Scholars Summit, presented in partnership with LCLD member corporation Microsoft.

Launched by Microsoft president Brad Smith more than a decade ago, the Facilitating Diversity in the Legal Profession Workshop provides diverse first-year law students in LCLD's 1L Scholars Program with an opportunity to practice resume writing, participate in mock interviews, and refine their LinkedIn profile to be more effective in reaching potential employers.

Having professionals of your caliber conduct these interviews will be an added benefit. Not only will the 1L Scholars learn from accomplished attorneys who have mastered the art of the interview, but they'll also learn how to make their personal "brand" more marketable while gaining insights that will help them throughout their careers.

Won't you pay it forward to the next generation by registering here to conduct mock interviews during the 1L Scholars Virtual Summit in May?

Thank you for your commitment to a more diverse and inclusive legal profession.

All the best,
